

An AFFECTED PROVINCIAL'S SUPPLEMENTAL: Pocket Square Folds

❖ No. 9: The "ASTAIRE" ❖

(A devilishly dapper fold, casually executed. Ideal for silk or linen pocket squares.)

a) Hold the unfolded square by its center, with all four points draping down.

b) Gather and/or fold the square at its midpoint, forming a kind of loose "puff" at the top.

c) Fold the loose points behind the puff—but take two of the square's points and pull them up, so that they peek out, alongside the puff.

d) Place into pocket, and adjust puff and points.
Go take Ginger out on the town!

Whimsy wishes he could say otherwise, but he cannot claim in any way to be the originator of this fold. Nevertheless, he is proud to act as its steward, and hopes you might wear it in good health. Enjoy!
